

Want a career in Teaching?

Specialist Support for Teaching & Learning

Train to teach and begin a career in the education sector as a Teaching Assistant with this Level 3 Diploma in Specialist Support for Teaching and Learning.

This recognised (RQF) qualification will enable you to apply for teaching assistant positions within any primary or secondary school, and work with children between the ages of 5-18 years of age across the UK

Completely accessible online learning

Find out more
esp-ac.uk/
enquiries@esp-ac.uk
01233 632 111

Duration: 6-12 months delivered online.

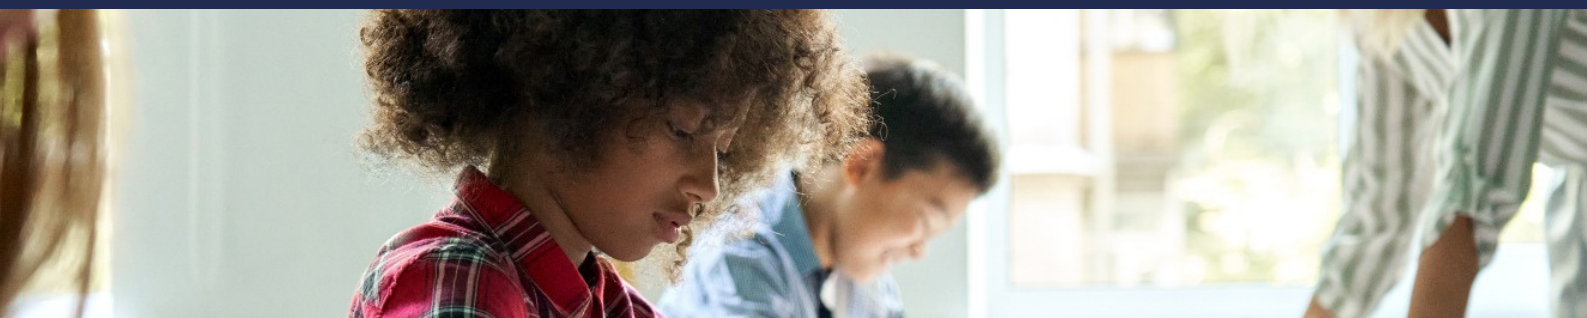

Observations are carried out at the individual's work placement.

What you will learn

- Effective communication and professional relationships with children, young people and adults
- Structure of education and schools, legislation and policy frameworks
Support learning activities
- Promote children and young peoples positive behaviour
- Develop professional relationships
- Equality, diversity , inclusion, safeguarding, health and safety Supporting assessment for learning
- Planning and delivery learning activities under direction
- support gifted and talented learners
- Understand child and young person development
- Speech, language and communication skills

Eligibility

- Eligible applicants must:
- Be 19 years or older on 31 August 2022
- No hold a Level 3 qualification
- Live in Kent
- Have a keen interest in teaching
- Have access to a computer or table device
- Have access to Wi-Fi and the internet to complete the study tasks
- Hold a Level 2 in Maths and English
- Must have placement work in a school setting to undertake practical assignments
- Hold a current and valid DBS certificate

Find out more

esp-ac.uk/
enquiries@esp-ac.uk
01233 632 111

APPROVED
CENTRE

